To Correspondents.

The gentleman who defended Rev. Mr. Cowgat, in an article sent to this office, is informed that, at Mr. C.'s request, the article was suppressed. He did not think the attack worthy of reply.

"Alsucaya" must be aware that his attack on the Homœopathist's would, if printed, provoke more replies than we could find room for—replies that we could not decline without being charged with unfairness.

"Rockford" seems not to know that we have published the material facts in that unfortunate affair of Gov. Bebb's, and that it would be wrong to prejudge the case by any argument to prove the Governor's guilt. With his personal affairs, the public have no concern.

To half a dozen others, we say again, that all communications must be accompanied by the writer's real name.

We call attention to the sale of lots on the West Side, by Simeon Downing & Co., to take place tomorrow. See advertisement.

Sentence of Jackson Sustained. The Sheriff received a dispatch yesterday, from the Clerk of the Supreme Court, that the judgment below had been affirmed in the case of the people vs. Jackson, the murderer.

The Fastest Time.—Yesterday afternoon, at 6.30, P. M., McNally furnished us with the New York papers of Wednesday morning, brought over the Michigan Central road. This beats anything that has yet been made. Last summer the time got in at 2 P. M., sometimes a little before that; but the present time leaves that far behind.

Drayage Charges.—One of the arguments pretended as an excuse for the proposed increase of drayage is the comparatively low rate of 50 cents per load, which is equal to half a dollar, at the high price of hay and "feed."

We reply 1st, that all other classes of people who own horses have to pay as much for feeding them as draymen. 2d, that hay is falling in price, and will continue to fall, until the new grass crop comes to market, which will be in the course of six or eight weeks, when it will sell cheap enough. 3d, cats will come down after harvest, perhaps one half; and corn, very considerably as soon as cold weather sets in. 4th, the present cost of horse feed affords no sufficient justification for nearly doubling the charges of drayage. A horse will not consume in fifteen dollars per week more for his keep, than when hay is ten dollars per ton. 5th. If draymen are entitled to double pay in the winter season, why are not farmers entitled to double pay for carting their produce to market? 6th. Why are not boarding-house keepers, carmen, hostlers, hod-men, coal and wood haulers, and all kinds of teamsters. Are the public prepared to pay double prices for all descriptions of hauling? Let the Mayor and Council consider the matter carefully, and not grant the petition of Draygo. If they do not think of it the people will !.

Union and Washington parks are both comparatively out of town, and the new park now laid out by our new City charter is nowhere. By the way, what is the name of the new park? Have they been carrying out the law in reference to this park? Times.

Are you aware that the "new park" of which you speak, would be comparatively a great deal farther out of town than either the Union or Washington; one that it will be of no practical service to one-twentieth of those who will need it most, and who will be taxed to pay three-fourths of its enormous cost; that in short, it is simply a speculation to enable certain parties to sell their grounds at a big price, to enormously enhance the property of others without expense to themselves; to reduce the huge number of vacant lots for sale South Twelfth street, and to enable the holders of extortionate prices from those who want to improve and live upon them. When the Times considers these facts, perhaps it will not be so urgent in "carrying out the law in reference" to this huge speculation, called a "park."

The Conspiracy Case.—Recorder's Court.—The Trials versus T. G. Prendergast, Charles O'Malley, Jerry Prendergast, Michael Ford, John S. Quinn, Patrick Gibbons, James Nolan and Robert Darrow.—Indictment for conspiracy to extort money from the keepers and inmates of brothels.

The Court met at 9 o'clock, and the cross examination of Patrick Keegan was proceeded with. Nothing further of special interest was elicited from the witness.

Kate Moore testified that she resides with Kate Howard at No. 116 Wells street; Jerry Prendergast came to that house on the 20th of April [1856]; the next day he mentioned that Quinn said he would turn it if we would settle it; said he would burn the warrant for $20; he did not say what he would do with the money; Mike Howard was in jail; I know Nolan; saw him at Miss Howard's in April; he wanted $10,50 from me; said if I did not pay it he would have me before the Recorder the next day; I paid the money; Ford was with him; they had a paper with them; he said it was to take the warrant; he said he would not have to pay any more; he said he would not have to pay $10,50 again; don't know that there was any name on it; Ford came there three months ago with a paper against me for $5; he said he would not have to pay it; I refused to pay for a back bill; I never saw Nolan there but twice; he did not say what Justice issued it; don't know who the bill was in favor of; he was after me when I lived in Wells street; Jerry O'Donnell assisted me; I started over to O'Malley's office; before we got there the hackman overtook us and told me I might as well go back; he said I would be sent to the House of Correction; I told him I was no need of going to O'Malley's; I paid him $13 afterwards; started with Ford; I told him the back fare on the Young America to Wells street; don't know how much the debt and costs were; don't know Quinn; Ford was there after Miss Howard paid the back fare; I was not prepared to pay for the warrant; I was not present when the money was paid; Miss Howard told me it was paid; I heard Jerry Prendergast say he would burn the warrant if the complainant was settled; Darrow was present; I don't know what the $10 was for; I paid the hackman on the 21st; Ford paid another; he said he would have my woman indicted who rode in a carriage with a man; I told a private lady this; I knew Frank Wilson; she is married; I was her special bail; the amount was $15; Quinn gave me receipt for the money and I paid it; Frank Wilson went to the Justice's office; he said he would get a judgment against her because she was a married woman; I paid the $15 as special bail; Darrow was present; I paid the $15 on the 21st of April; Quinn did not show any writ; I paid the $15 because I did not say it was for this special bail—for Wilson's debt; I paid them $10 besides the $15; Quinn said he would not have to pay more than $10; I told Jerry Prendergast of this; he said the $10 was the receipt for the money; I paid it; Ford said both made these remarks; Quinn said he would pay the Squire out of his $5; I paid the $15 because they swore, if I would do so, not to appear against me on the state warrant.

Georgiana King testified that she had resided on the corner of Dearborn and Superior streets; Quinn and Jerry Prendergast came to her house about four or five months ago; said they had a warrant for me to go to Justice Prendergast's office; I did go to Quinn's office with them; they left my house; I gave $5 to Jerry Prendergast before he went; Jerry Prendergast did not show me any writ; after I gave them the money they did not take me; and left me; about a week ago Quinn came to me and told me they had a warrant for me to go down to Justice Prendergast's office; I did; did not see the warrant; they said if I would give them $10 more the money they would have me again; I refused to give them any money; I went down to Justice Prendergast's office alone; had to pay one against another; I paid the Justice $2 and Jerry $2; the other $6 I paid to Quinn; have not received any money from me at any other time.

Mrs. Frances B. Marvin testified that she resides at No. 206 North Clark street; Quinn and Ford were at my house together before Christmas; said they wanted to see me privately on business; I took them into the back parlor; said they had a warrant for me; they said I must go with them; I asked what for; Ford said "well, I guess we won't take you as you are a pretty clever woman, if you will pay the money;" I asked what the costs were; Ford said $5,50 or $6,50; I gave him $10; he asked them what they would do with the warrant and if they would destroy it; they said they would destroy it; one of them tore it in little pieces and threw them in the spittoon; they did not state who issued the warrant; they came alone; Quinn had a warrant against my husband; Quinn and Jerry Prendergast were there; I told them I was ready for trial; they said they had a warrant for me; they said I must go with them to Justice Prendergast's office; I went; Quinn and Ford were present; I asked what for; they said I said you; he said I was charged with keeping a house of ill-fame; and said if I did not pay I would be sent to the House of Correction; I told him I was guilty; I told him I would not plead guilty to boarding those ladies; they had separated four others with me; he said they had better not; he said he would let them go; and asked them if they would pay the costs; I told him I would pay nothing; I left them; two of them $5 each; the other $10; I paid them to my son; they did not state who issued the warrant against me; and were very secret; Quinn and Ford were present; Quinn said he would have my woman indicted who rode in a carriage with a man; I told a private lady this; I knew Frank Wilson; she is married; I was her special bail; the amount was $15; Quinn gave me receipt for the money and I paid it; Frank Wilson went to the Justice's office; and they would not get a judgment against her because she was a married; I paid the $15 as special bail; Darrow was present; I paid the $15 on the 21st of April; Quinn did not show any writ; I paid the $15 because they swore, if I would do so, not to appear against me on the state warrant.

Georgiana King testified that she had resided on the corner of Dearborn and Superior streets; Quinn and Jerry Prendergast came to my house about four or five months ago; said they had a warrant for me to go to Justice Prendergast's office; I did go to Quinn's office with them; they left my house; I gave $5 to Jerry Prendergast before he went; Jerry Prendergast did not show me any writ; after I gave them the money they did not take me; and left me; about a week ago Quinn came to me and told me they had a warrant for me to go down to Justice Prendergast's office; I did; did not see the warrant; they said if I would give them $10 more the money they would have me again; I refused to give them any money; I went down to Justice Prendergast's office alone; had to pay one against another; I paid the Justice $2 and Jerry $2; the other $6 I paid to Quinn; have not received any money from me at any other time.

Mrs. Frances B. Marvin testified that she resides at No. 206 North Clark street; Quinn and Ford were at my house together before Christmas; said they wanted to see me privately on business; I took them into the back parlor; said they had a warrant for me; they said I must go with them; I asked what for; Ford said "well, I guess we won't take you as you are a pretty clever woman, if you will pay the money;" I asked what the costs were; Ford said $5,50 or $6,50; I gave him $10; he asked them what they would do with the warrant and if they would destroy it; they said they would destroy it; one of them tore it in little pieces and threw them in the spittoon; they did not state who issued the warrant; they came alone; Quinn had a warrant against my husband; Quinn and Ford were present; Quinn said he would have my woman indicted who rode in a carriage with a man; I told a private lady this; I knew Frank Wilson; she is married; I was her special bail; the amount was $15; Quinn gave me receipt for the money and I paid it; Frank Wilson went to the Justice's office; and they would not get a judgment against her because she was a married; I paid the $15 as special bail; Darrow was present; I paid the $15 on the 21st of April; Quinn did not show any writ; I paid the $15 because they swore, if I would do so, not to appear against me on the state warrant.

[The witness here produced a list of twenty-six names of them unfortunates, with the sums each had been required to pay, amounting in the aggregate to $182,75.]

Frank Quinn testified that he knew all the defendants; did not know Keegan; engaged in dispensing the extract of Canadian balm, a medical preparation made from the leaves of the Balm of Gilead plant; by his father-in-law, old Dr. R. Jarne. The old Doctor discovered this infallible remedy for consumption, asthma, bronchitis, hectic debility, &c., &c. Quinn is the Doctor for all these ailments. He has been in the business for a year; had a partner, but that is did not take him an hour to do it; Quinn was not present; heard Quinn say he made a good deal of money out of the prosecutions by arresting them; he said he made $100 per week; Jerry Prendergast said he had been on the Lands and made a good deal out of the cyprians; he said he died in by the new charter; he spoke of having done so half a dozen times.

Fanny Ford testified that she resided, a year ago, on Illinois street; knew Jerry Prendergast; he was at my house; he brought a warrant to arrest me; showed me the warrant; it was issued by Justice Prendergast; the charge was for keeping a house of ill-fame; I do not know what was done with the warrant; I gave him $20; he promised to settle it for that; the debt was not paid; I have since applied once to answer to the warrant; he did not tell me that he would do with the warrant; I know Quinn and Ford; I have seen them together; I do not know of their getting money from any girl.

Elizabeth Goodman testified that she resides in North Clark street; have paid Quinn money at my house; he was in the habit of coming there; I kept a house of ill-fame; I paid him $11; he had taken me the evening before to Justice Prendergast's office; I was arrested; I was charged with keeping a house; and I had no trial; the Justice said the fine would be from $10 to $100, and said if I did not drop my business I might go further; and that would make it worse; Quinn asked me if I could get security, and I said I did not want any; the Justice said the costs would be $11; I paid Quinn the $11; and gave him a receipt for it; he said the $11 was the entire charge; he did not say what it was for; he said he would take $11; I paid Quinn the $11, and gave him a receipt for it; he said the $11 was the entire charge; he did not say what it was for; he said he would take $11; I paid Quinn the $11, and gave him a receipt for it; he said the $11 was the entire charge; he did not say what it was for; I paid Quinn the
